(3) Explanation of missed deadlines

In September 2010, the Department missed the following deadlines:

Deadline missed	Reason
Develop guidance for other government bodies to impose 'sunset clauses' on new regulations so that they automatically expire unless positive action is taken by Government to renew them	Awaiting final clearance across Whitehall. Detailed guidance on sunsetting domestic regulations will be published for consultation in October. Work on the potential for legally robust sunsetting of EU regulations is ongoing.

The status of missed deadlines from previous reports is:

Deadline missed	Status	Reason
Universities produce statements to show how well courses equip students for employment (Aug 2010)	Still not complete	The Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) wrote to all universities requiring them to produce employability statements by 31st August. There was a good response across a range of institutions. Most statements are now published on the Unistats website (unistats.direct.gov.uk). HEFCE expect more to be published shortly.
